“ One of my fondest memories of Bill took place at a friend's wedding at a Russian Orthodox Church. My husband John was the Groom's Best Man. One of his duties was to hold a wreath of flowers over the Groom's head as the Bride & Groom circled the Alter. Many times John's Arm started shaking aimlessly. Needless to say Bill began to laugh. It was a sight to behold. Jeanie had moved to the very end of the pew. We on the other hand were out of Control at this point. We thought it would be best to remain seated until the Bridal Party left for the Reception. Jean said we were a Disgrace! We laughed at that too..

“ *William B. Herrmann RIP
I have known Bill since 1954. I was his best man when he married Jeanne. I am honored to say that we are friends. The memories of our friendship survive indefinitely. Bill was a good man...a one-of-a-kind sense of humor coupled with honesty, integrity and compassion.
My condolences to Jeanne, Melanie and Kerry. I share your loss. I will miss Bill.

“ *As part of Bill's "Rod & Fun" fishing gang, I can tell you that those trips would not have been half the fun without Bill Herrmann's humor and great wit.
Our memories keep our dear friends with us to relive those good times.
Bill will be surely missed, My Condolences to the Family.
