“ *To the Schofield family --
I met Bill in 2011 when he began developing a business relationship between PNC and the City of New York. He was a pleasure to work with -- patient, diligent and dedicated to serving his clients with all the resources of PNC. I remember him reaching out to us immediately after Superstorm Sandy to see if there was any way the bank could be helpful, which meant a lot.*

On behalf of myself and my colleagues, our sincere condolences.

“ Dear Maureen, Ann Marie, Will and Jamie: The first time I met Bill and Maureen was at Kerry and Bob's and it was not under the greatest of circumstances. I do not think Bill was very happy with me that night; and isn't it amazing how some situations bring wonderful people together to become friends. My heart is a little heavier these days. And I think the world a little sadder. Bill to me, was one of the good guys, he was just such a down to earth, nice, nice man and a gently soul. He will be greatly missed. He made you smile. I shall always keep all of you in my heart and know that you all have a very special angel watching over you and guiding you on life's journey. My love, prayers and hugs to all. I remember the fun we all use to have as cousins, the picnics, sleepovers, Thanksgivings, so many get-togethers. I was Bill's "little cousin" and I will miss his sweet , gentleness that he had. “ I knew Bill from his many visits to Makefield Highlands golf course. I work in the pro shop and I can honestly say I always enjoyed his visits to the club. We talked about our children when they were at Notre Dame High School and continued to laugh and share stories throughout our children's college years. Bill always had a warm smile on his face and a welcoming hello when he came to golf at Makefield. His presence will be missed. May your faith comfort you during this difficult time.

“ It was back in 2009 when the Schofield family was nice enough to be my host family during a school exchange from my german school and the Notre Dame Highschool.

From the moment I got to meet the Schofields I was overwhelmed by their kindness, generosity and hospitality. You could sense that their family had a strong bound and loved each other very much.

Even though 7 years have passed now since my visit I often like to think about the time I spend with them, from taking trips to Philadelphia, having great conversations, all of us watching the Eagles together, going to church and the one time Bill took Jamie and me to New York to watch a hockey game at the Madison Square Garden which was a dream coming true for a sports fan!

I always will be grateful for the time they embraced me and I wish you all the best and the strength in this time

I'm sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you.

Rest in Peace Bill!
