“ *Dear Andrea, I am so sorry not to be there today...it was my intention.
I found the sorrow of losing my mom came in after...when I thought to share a happiness with her, or show her something I felt she'd like to see... But we must try and remember all the memories we did have and the joy we did share...and the love and caring you gave Winnie...it was true and plentiful. She knew you loved her and took care of her always and she was happy. I love you, and I am always here for you my friend ❤️*
